RESCUERS AT WORK.

But Making Little Progress in Their Search for Entombed Miners.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 1.—The situation at the Twin shaft to-night remains unchanged. The rescue work is being pushed as hard as possible, but it is so slow, for the task is gigantic. The inevitable conclusion is that it may be weeks before the bodies are recovered, if at all.

The filling, which has been going on from the shaft, is being pushed to the foot of the shaft, and a large body of gas is being driven out. The officials have abandoned the idea of tunneling, as the men would have to travel 2,000 feet to reach the point where the victims are thought to have been when they came in. The rescue work is being pushed as hard as possible, but it is so slow, for the task is gigantic. The inevitable conclusion is that it may be weeks before the bodies are recovered, if at all.

AGAINST HOLMES'S HEIRS.

They Have No Property Rights in the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table."

CHICAGO, July 1.—Judge Jenkins, in the federal court, has handed down an opinion in which he denies any property rights of the heirs of Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes to the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table."

The opinion was in the suit brought by O. W. Holmes, Jr., for an injunction to restrain Donohue, Henneberry & Co., of Chicago, from publishing an edition of the work. The "Autocrat" sketches originally ran in the Atlantic Monthly, concluding with the October number. The title was not filed for copyright protection until November, 1888, one month after the completion of the sketches. In his opinion Judge Jenkins says: "The law provides that no person shall be entitled to the copyright unless he shall, before publication, deliver to the office of the Librarian of Congress a printed copy of the book for which he claims a copyright. There is a provision that the printed copy of the book must be filed before publication. I think it would be a refinement upon language to say that serial publication of this work is not a publication."

General Lawton Seriously Ill.

SAVANNAH, Ga., July 1.—News was received to-night from Clinton Springs, N. Y., that General Alexander A. Lawton, of this city, is in a very precarious condition at that place. General Lawton was promoted in the Confederate army and under resident Cleveland's first administration as minister to Austria.

DEMOCRACY'S BATTLE

SILVER MEN AND GOLD ADVOCATES LINING UP FOR THE FRAY.

Unsatisfactory Conference Between the National Executive Committee and Leading White Metallists.

LATTER PUT OFF BY HARRITY

AND REQUESTED TO SEE THE FULL COMMITTEE NEXT MONDAY.

Silverites Are Suspicious and Fear the Sound-Money Men Are Secretly Planning to Effect a Coup.

PRECAUTIONS TO BE TAKEN

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN OF THE CONVENTION WILL BE SELECTED.

And Other Preparations Made for Ascertaining the Will of the Majority, if the Committee Does Not Relent.

CHICAGO, July 1.—The Democratic pot is beginning to boil and the silverites are preparing the ingredients for the stew. Many delegates to the national convention, which convenes next Tuesday at the Coliseum, are already here, and numerous conferences are being held. Hon. W. F. Harrity, chairman of the national committee, arrived to-day and made his appearance at the Palmer House a few minutes before 12, the hour set for the meeting of the executive committee. He found the silver committee, appointed yesterday to confer with him, awaiting him, and gave his members an early audience. When asked as to the status of the temporary chairmanship, before he had met the silverites, Mr. Harrity said he had no information to give out on that question. "I can only say," continued the chairman, "that so far as I am concerned, I have no man for the place. Whether the matter will be harmonized with the silver men, or what the outcome will be, it is as yet too soon to tell. There has been no opportunity to confer with the leaders, and will be able to say more later."

Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, is also among the recent arrivals. He was in conference during the greater part of the day with silver delegates from all parts of the country. The result of the conference was the situation beyond expressing his satisfaction at the prospects of an unquestioned silver majority in the convention. Col. Phil Thompson, who accompanies Senator Blackburn, says the Senator will unquestionably be placed in nomination, but that it is not yet known whether the nominating speech will be made.

A conference between Governor Altgeld, Governor Stone and several other leading Democrats was held at the Sherman House to-day. The meeting was for the purpose of outlining a plan of action to be carried out by the national committee in regard to the temporary organization of the convention. The two Governors breakfasted together and at once left the dining room and met with other prominent free-silver Democrats and remained in session the greater part of the forenoon. The door of the room was closed, and the guard said he had been instructed not to admit anyone, and not even to take a card should any be presented. There has been some talk that Governor Altgeld may be chosen for permanent chairman, but the Governor's friends declare that he is not a candidate for the honor and will not accept it.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The executive committee of the national committee convened at the Palmer House promptly at 12 o'clock with Chairman Harrity and Messrs. Wall, Shearin, Sherry, Prather and Wallace present. Mr. Cable was called to the fact that the silverites went immediately into executive session with a cordon of guards at the various doors. The silver committee, consisting of Senators Jones, Daniel, Turpie and Governors Altgeld and Stone, was promptly admitted. The two committees were together for an hour and a half, when the silver committee withdrew to continue the conference.

The proceedings of the conference were formal speeches, but the conference partook of the character of a general convocation of the party. There were no formal speeches, but the conference partook of the character of a general convocation of the party. CHICAGO, July 1.—Senator David B. Hill and William C. Whitney are expected here on Friday afternoon and their coming is looked forward to as the opening of the conflict of the Eastern gold advocates against the silver men of the Democratic party. Mr. Hill, who is not expected to believe that all is yet lost, so far as his movement is concerned, for in coming here he ignores the advice of Washington Hesing, Chicago's postmaster, and the almost solitary chief representative of the gold standard doctrine of President Cleveland, now on the ground. Mr. Hesing wrote to Mr. Whitney Saturday telling him that a fight for gold would be so much wasted energy, and that in his opinion the surest way out of the trouble was to let the silver men have absolute control and then, after they had finished their work, the gold-standard people could take some action. Speakings of the matter to-night, Mr. Hesing said: "Mr. Altgeld will control this convention just as absolutely as he controlled the Peoria convention. His pronouncement seems to carry great weight. Senator Hill was perfectly satisfactory as chairman for temporary chairman of the silver people. Mr. Altgeld said 'No,' and that settled it. Within two days he has said that the two-thirds rule on presidential nomination should be abolished and it looks as if he would carry his point. I believe that we sound every voice in the convention that we sound the people's interests by letting the silver people have all the rope they want without interference. Then let us meet and express our convictions and the people at the polls will take care of the rest."

Control Eckels, of the Treasury Department, said to-day that he expected Mr. Whitney and others of the anti-silver wing of the party on Friday. Mr. Eckels thinks that after that time the complexion of sentiment will change somewhat and that the silver people will not have such complete command of the situation as they now have. While Mr. Whitney is regarded as the leader of the gold forces they expect to be able to muster a formidable array of distinguished men who will assist him in his efforts to prevent the party throwing itself entirely on the silver side. Mr. Eckels said that in addition to the Senators Hill and Murphy, Hon. Charles Tracey, Governor Flower, Hon. Frederick R. Coudert and ex-Postmaster General Bissell are expected from New York, as are Hon. Don M. Dickinson, of Michigan; Governor Russell, Hon. J. E. Russell and Mayor Quincy, from Massachusetts; Senator Joseph R. Sweeney, of New Jersey; Senator Vilas, of Wisconsin; Senator Gray, of Delaware, and many others, including large delegations of business men and influential politicians from Indianapolis, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, Cincinnati and other cities.

Fifty influential men are coming from Indianapolis and other cities to aid in the fight for the gold standard. They are expected to arrive on Friday and will be met by a large delegation of the Illinois gold Democrats who will also be present in force.

"I cannot but believe," said Mr. Eckels, after giving this list, "that these men will exert an influence on the convention that will be felt for years to come. They will be met by a large delegation of the Illinois gold Democrats who will also be present in force."
